Are you applying for artist preference*?

Yes _____ No _____

Artist Preference for South Side Lofts:

Anyone may apply for residency at South Side Lofts, but there is a rental preference for those income-qualified applicants who participate in the arts. Applicants who meet the following criteria will receive placement on the waiting list above those applicants who do not meet the criteria.

*Criteria for Preferential Status:

1. Those who wish to qualify for artist preference at South Side Lofts will be required to submit a document that answers the following questions:
 - a. Applicants should demonstrate that they are currently working towards specific goals in one (or more) of a variety of genres (fine art, dance, theatre, photography, writing, craft, music, spoken word, graphic arts, etc.). Please state your artistic goals, both short term (within the next year) and long term (beyond one year), and how you plan to achieve them.
 - b. Besides work on your own art, please describe your past and current involvement in the arts community (i.e. do you teach classes, volunteer, work, etc. in the arts?).
 - c. How do you see yourself contributing to a community where artists live and work closely together?
 - d. As an artist, how will this housing benefit you?
2. In addition to your answers to these questions, applicants must demonstrate a recent commitment to their art form(s). Please submit copies or photographs of a body of work (minimum of five to ten pieces), nothing older than five years. All work should be presented in a professional manner.

After an applicant submits the required documentation, management will review it for preliminary approval. After this first review, the documentation will be sent on to a member of the Advisory Committee (committee is made up of members of the community who are involved in the arts in various ways) for review. Once the Advisory Committee member approves, the applicant will be placed on the waiting list as an applicant with artist preference.

Please remember that these criteria are qualifications for the preference only. All applicants must pass credit, criminal, landlord checks and income-qualify to reside at South Side Lofts.
